

INDEPENDENT STUDY

The Independent Studies program is offered to those students who wish to pursue a course study not offered in the curriculum. This program is offered primarily to Seniors with consideration given to underclassmen.

Approval for a course in the Independent Studies program is dependent on the satisfactory completion of the following items:

1. Signature of a sponsoring instructor.
2. A course outline approved by the sponsoring instructor the department chairperson and director of guidance.